Sight Word Activities
Pencil, Marker, Crayon Write each sight word in pencil, marker, and crayon.	SENTENCES PLEASE! Choose 5 sight words. Use each of your words in a silly COMPLETE sentence. Underline the words in each sentence.	AEIOU Write your sight words. Trace the vowels with a red crayon. Vowels: a, e, i, o, u  many there
Hop to it! Create a hopscotch board with painters tape indoors or sidewalk chalk outdoors. Place a sight word in each square. As your child hops along the board, have them read the sight word.	Write it! You'll love this sight word activity. Pour salt or sugar in a shallow plastic tray. Let your child "write" the word in the sugar or salt.   	Rainbow Write Use multiple colors of crayons to write each sight word. Each word will look like a rainbow!

Students who have access to i-Ready should complete at least 45 minutes and pass 1 lesson.
